

Held annually around Valentine’s Day, the Love Liberally symposium (in-person & virtual) explores love as it relates to the liberal arts. After more than a decade, this series has become a University tradition that creates a unique opportunity for exploration of scholarly passions and engaged learning.

DATES /EVENTS SCHEDULE

Love Liberally

EVENT 1

DR. BEN HALLER

Explore Classics by viewing a virtual video of Dr. Ben Haller sharing his love of Classical Studies! You can view "The Archaeology of Love in Archaic Greece" at anytime.

EVENT 2

DR. GARRETT WOOD

"Love for the Dismal Science: Understanding Humanity through Economics" Join Dr. Wood on Thursday, February 23rd from Noon-1pm in Pearce Hospitality Suite.

EVENT 3

DR. KATHY STOLLEY

"Love Your Pets: The Human-Animal Bond at the Veterinarian's Office"
Join the SOC 237/Animals and Society class in Allen Village, (Social Science Lab 111), on Feb 23rd, 1-2:15 pm1:00-2:15 pm for a visit by a veterinarian who will discuss human relationships with our companion animals through the lens of veterinary care interactions. Mostly informal with time for Q & A.

EVENT 4

DR. TERRY LINDVALL &
DR. STU MINNIS

Created "Hollywood Teach Us to Pray", an engaging, fun, and meaningful film. View the screening, Tuesday, Feb. 28, 6:30-9 PM at the Susan S. Goode Fine and Performing Arts Center. Arrive at 6:30 pm to view Life Is a Cabaret, a film by VWU student filmmaker Erness Anne Deseo. This screening is sponsored by the Robert Nusbaum Center.

VWU's Annual Celebration of Love in the Liberal Arts

You're welcome to join the celebration by attending the following events! These events are supported by VWU's Innovative Teaching and Engaged Learning (INTEL).

