

EARTH WEEK

APRIL 23-27, 2019

Join us as we display Virginia Wesleyan's green thumb and environmental awareness by hosting fun and educational events that students, faculty, and staff can look forward to each year.

4/23 Wasted! The Story of Food Waste- Movie-- Boyd Dining Center at 6pm

4/23 The Earth & Environmental Sciences Department Presents: NASA speaker, Yolanda Shea Physical Research Scientist-- Greer Rm 255-- 11am-12pm followed by a Chat and Chew in the cafe.
-Open to the Public-

4/24 Guest speaker - Sydney Covey, Sustainability Solutions Manager at STRUCTR Hosted by the Physical Plant in Pearce Hospitality --10am -12pm & Trash-to-Art Event (Marlin presentation) Hosted by the Art club -Open to the Public-

4/25 Sustainability Green Job Fair-Internship/Job opportunities in CMAC-- 11am-1pm
Bring your resumes, look sharp, and ask questions!
-Open to the Public-

4/25 Guided Woods Walk & Meditation with Botanical Gardens Horticulturist- Marisa Cousins --Meet in the Greer lobby- 2pm-3pm

4/25 Tye Dye T-Shirt Event/BYOS Bring your own shirt Let's Upcycle! Hosted by ASA in the University Commons area by the Grille -- 3-5pm

4/26 - Campus Clean up (Meet in Greer) hosted by MGG (Volunteers are welcomed)

4/27 Street Clean Up - 9am- 11am -(Meet in Greer) Volunteers are welcome to assist!
Headed up by Phi Kappa Tau and Phi Sigma Sigma.

Locally grown produce items and vegetarian options will be featured in the cafe during the week.

For more information contact: Micaela Morris at mmorris@vwu.edu or Ashley Roehrman at abroehrman@vwu.edu

